Message from Community Lay Director

You are invited to a party! We are going to keep the party going. Let's party! Let's party!

It's Friday but Sunday is coming. Things looked bleak on Friday but the celebration on Sunday was coming. That was Easter, Emmaus Week-end and us. Today, it's up to us to keep the party going.

When the prodigal Father welcomed his son back home, he gave him a big hug and shouted out "kill the fatted calf! We are going to party!"

When the lost sheep was found the neighbors celebrated. How? A party! We are told by Jesus that is how the angels celebrate when a lost sinner is saved.

I have always loved communion on Sunday closing because it is a celebration. Saturday night on week-ends is a celebration. Life is fellowship is a celebration. So... Hug someone today and tomorrow. Don't be afraid to hug. As of right now – hugging is back -- you are welcome to practice hugging on me. Let us pray for each other – love each other – hug each other. Lead others to Christ. Bring them to our party.

Remember that the more boldly you lead – the more boldly you will be criticized.

I am asking others to join the party. Have you accepted the challenge? Here's a hug from me to you.

DeColores, 'Pinky" Pendleton
